

Where Mumbai begins.

BRAND BOARD · ONE MARK, ONE LINE, ONE BAND

01 · THE MARK

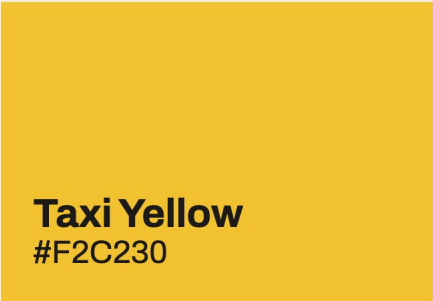

The Gateway of India drawn as one block and one arch, over a line of harbour water. Colaba is where travellers arrived by sea, so the mark is a door.

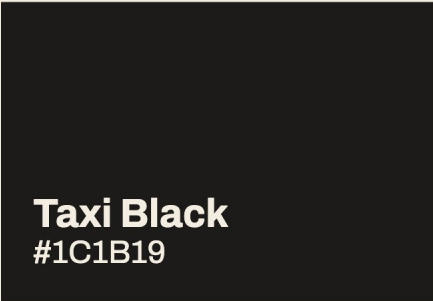

02 · THE RULES

1. The lockup always sits on the black band. Never on a photo.
2. Mark: black square, yellow drawing. Never recoloured.
3. One tagline: Where Mumbai begins.
4. Photos run straight and square. No tilts, frames or filters.
5. Section tags are yellow blocks: SEE, EAT, SHOP, RIDE.

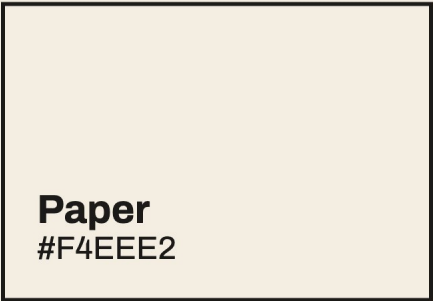

03 · COLOUR — KAALI-PEELI

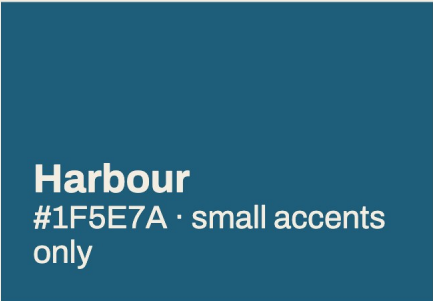

Taxi Yellow
#F2C230

Taxi Black
#1C1B19

Paper
#F4EEE2

Harbour
#1F5E7A · small accents only

Black and yellow are the city's taxis, the colours every visitor sees first. Two colours, used loudly, are easier to remember than six used politely.

04 · TYPE

COLABA

Anton — wordmark, headlines, section tags

Archivo for every word you read.

Archivo — body, captions; italic 600 for the tagline only

कोलाबा

Mukta — the Marathi name, always under the wordmark

COLABA

कोलाबा

ISSUE 01
[MONTH YEAR]

ARRIVE BY SEA

The Gateway, the ferries and the first view of the city.

SEE · EAT · SHOP · RIDE

Where Mumbai begins.

₹[PRICE]

COLABA

कोलाबा

ISSUE 02
[MONTH YEAR]

STAY A WHILE

The Taj, the Causeway and the cafés between them.

SEE · EAT · SHOP · RIDE

Where Mumbai begins.

₹[PRICE]

#COLABA

Where Mumbai begins.

SEE

START AT THE ARCH

The Gateway of India faces the harbour at Apollo Bunder.
Everything else in this guide is a short walk away.

Where Mumbai begins.

COLABA

RIDE

FLAG A KAALI-PEELI

Black below, yellow above: the city's colours on four wheels, and the colours of this guide.

Where Mumbai begins.

COLABA

A DAY IN COLABA

- 09:00 Start at the Gateway of India. Watch the ferries load.
- 10:30 Walk to CSMVS for the galleries and the gardens.
- 13:00 Lunch under the cartoons at Café Mondegar.
- 15:00 Browse the stalls along Colaba Causeway.
- 18:00 Back to the harbour as the Taj lights up.

Suggested times only. Check opening hours before you go.

GETTING HERE

By train — Churchgate or CSMT, then a short taxi ride south.

By taxi — ask for the Gateway of India. Every driver knows it.

By sea — ferries for Elephanta leave from the Gateway jetty.

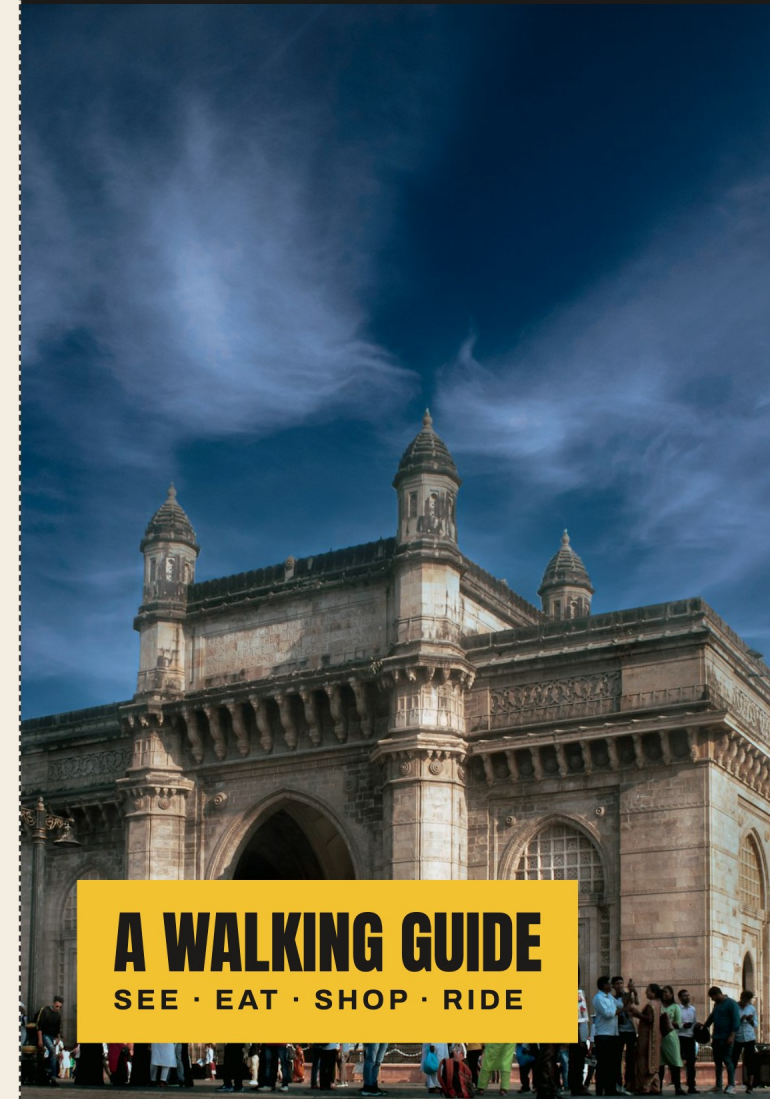

MORE

[WEBSITE]

[INSTAGRAM HANDLE] · #Colaba

Colaba · A visual design project
Sumeet Telgote

A WALKING GUIDE
SEE · EAT · SHOP · RIDE

Where Mumbai begins.

SEE

CSMVS MUSEUM

Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj Vastu Sangrahalaya opened in 1922 in a domed Indo-Saracenic building. Around 50,000 objects: sculpture, miniature paintings, textiles and natural history.

Open [HOURS] · Tickets [PRICE]

Colaba · A visual design project

02

EAT

CAFÉ MONDEGAR

A Colaba Causeway institution. The walls are covered in Mario Miranda's cartoons of city life, and it was one of the first cafés in Mumbai with a jukebox.

Open [HOURS] · Try [DISH]

Colaba · A visual design project

03

SHOP

COLABA CAUSEWAY

Street stalls for silver, kolhapuris, books and bric-a-brac under old arcades. Walk slowly, bargain with a smile, and keep the Taj in sight to find your way back.

Best [DAYS / TIME]

Where Mumbai begins.

04