1 Dusky Prints: A Personal Brand Identity

A self-branding project building out “Dusky Prints,” a personal fashion-styling brand — from mood board and logo suite through stationery, product mockups, and a live website.

- I Sumeet Telgote am branding myself as a Fashion Stylist. The name of my brand is 'Dusky Prints'. Dusky, because it is my skin tone and Prints because I just can't get over them. I love prints and experimenting with them and to see how far print can look on anything. Especially in clothing which is my major comfort place. Prints in fashion can never go wrong and I'm here to prove that with my styling.
